Why Small Groups for Way of Love?

Jesus said, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.” – Mark 12:30-31

The purpose of a faith-based small group is to build relationships with God and one another. When we meet each other in real conversation, we learn how to love.

How to start a Small Group:

1) Find a capable facilitator.

Great facilitators:
- Are familiar with the discussion material: “Let me rephrase the question a different way…”
- Invite others into the conversation: “Would anyone who hasn’t yet shared like to share?”
- Are perceptive to non-verbal cues: “It looks like she’s trying to say something.”
Get the conversation out of the head and into the heart: “What does … have to do with your relationship with God?” or “How does it make you feel that …?”

Open the conversation back up: “What do others think?”

Engage introverts: “Just a reminder: if you always speak, count to three before speaking. If you never speak, don’t stop to count!” or “We’re going to take a minute of silence to think about the question, and then we’ll share.”

Refocus the question: “I wonder if anyone had any thoughts about the topic at hand.”

Claim their authority as facilitator: “I’m sorry, but we don’t interrupt one another. Not interrupting is part of our group’s norms.” or “Let’s remember to speak one at a time and wait for others to finish before we speak.”

Watch the time: “This is a great discussion, but it’s time we need to move on to our practices for the week.”

The best training for small group facilitation is being a part of a well-functioning small group in the past. You might think about people in your community have taken part in Education for Ministry or other small groups. Remember: good facilitation isn’t about knowing everything about the content, but rather the ability to facilitate meaningful conversation.

2) Gather a small group.

Jesus was onto something: Twelve is about the perfect number for a small group. You can get away with 8-14 people, though. Any less than eight, and with a few absences, the group is too small. Any more than 14, and there are too many people to have an in-depth single conversation.

Personal invitations go a long way to forming a meaningful small group. Be upfront about expectations when you invite people so they know what to expect. Small groups function best with consistent participation, so be clear that you will be depending on the participants to consistently participate.

3) Plan logistics.

Thoughtfully consider the following questions:

- Where will sessions be held? Is it safe and accessible for everyone in your group?
- When should sessions be held? Will your group meet weekly, twice a month, or once a month? We recommend meeting weekly, if possible. Weekly gatherings are likely to result in more consistent participation and greater group cohesion. Meeting less frequently, however, is more appropriate in some settings and allows participants more time to process and practice the Way of Life along the way.
- Should we eat together? If so, how will we ensure that participants’ food restrictions are met?
- Should we provide childcare?
- How could we contact participants if the time or place had to change on short notice?
• What kind of name tags do you want to use? Even if you think everyone knows each other, providing name tags helps build community and make sure we all know one another.

4 ) Build group norms.

The first time your group meets, set group norms together. Group norms are simply expectations about how members of the group will treat each other, and are an important part of healthy groups. Some groups prefer to post norms clearly in their meeting space, others reread the norms each week as they begin their time together. Other groups are much more informal. However, it’s important for everyone to have the same expectations about their time together.

Here are some issues that all groups should discuss as they begin their relational small group:
• Confidentiality: What is allowed to be shared outside the group? What may be shared on social media?
• Respect: How will group members respect each other during their conversations?
• Logistics: What are expectations about arriving on time? About providing or sharing food? What is the group’s position about alcohol? Do members of the group have food restrictions?
• Technology: What is the phone policy? Will they be turned off? Placed in the middle of the table? Or is casual use acceptable?
• Session preparation: What, if anything, are group members supposed to be prepare before they meet each week?

Facilitators should feel empowered to reference the group’s norms if a behavior is becoming a distraction. “I’m sorry, but the group decided that we would not be texting during the session. Is this an emergency?” or “Remember it’s our policy not to interrupt others while they are talking. Please wait for her to finish.” If the group or one particularly member consistently breaks the norms, the facilitator may find it helpful to revisit the norms with the group. The group may decide to keep or change the norms.

5 ) Keep the agenda of the small group consistent.

Here is a tried-and-true structure for a small group gathering:

(30 Minutes) MEAL:
Eating together is optional, but it’s fun! If you’ll be eating together, allow 30 minutes for the meal and then start your session after everyone is done.

(5 Minutes) PRAYER:
Ask God to be with your group during your time together.
(15 Minutes) CHECK-IN:
Check-in is a chance for group members to get to know each other better, reconnect, and warm up for the discussion questions.

Some tips for check-in:
- The first few times your group meets, consider asking an "ice-breaker" type question.
- Your group may want to use the process of mutual invitation where the first speaker invites the next person to speak.
- Participants may "pass" but the facilitator should invite those who do to speak at the end.
- Check-in may take longer than 15 minutes the first few times your group meets, but it’s worth taking the time to know each other better.
- Check-in is not about responding to the last person who talked, but rather one’s own answer to the question.
- Try to link the check-in question to the focus content.

This curriculum will provide sample check-in questions for each week, but feel free to meet the context of your own group and make your own!

A note on mutual invitation: The process of mutual invitation is a method of sharing that ensures that everyone who wants to speak has the opportunity to do so. It also has the benefit of building group cohesion. Members are required to call on one another by name and may be required to call on members on whom they would not naturally call. Lastly, mutual invitation shifts power within a group and honors different cultural expectations about speaking. In some cultures, group members will not speak up unless invited.

The process is as follows: A designated person will share first. When that person has finish speaking, that person invites another by name to share. Whom you invite does not need to be the person next to you. After the next person has spoken, that person is given the privilege to invite another to share. If you are not ready to share yet, say “I pass for now” and we will invite [you to share later on]. If you don’t want to say anything at all, simply say “pass” and proceed to invite another to share. We will do this until everyone has been invited. (process description adapted from The Wolf Shall Dwell With the Lamb by Eric H. F. Law)

(45 Minutes) DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:
The purpose of a small group is relationship with others and with God. The foundation for these relationships is open, creative, and life-giving conversation. Ask questions about your topic that encourage emotional connection, real sharing, and creative thinking. Good discussion questions generate a space where people actually get to talk about what matters to them most.
A good discussion question…
- Is easily understood by participants
- Could be playful and imaginative (e.g. “I wonder…”) or quite serious (“What does it mean for your life that…?”)
- Isn’t answered by “yes” or “no”
- Links the participant’s life experience to the content
- Is open-ended (e.g. “What is intriguing about this idea?”) instead of closed (e.g. “Do you like this idea?”)
- Encourages story-telling
- Brings God and faith into the conversation
- Uses the content to help the participants think deeply about what matters

Be prepared with at least five discussion questions, but know that the group might go really deep into just one and not get to the other questions. That’s okay! The point of this time is life-giving conversation, so if that’s being created, there’s no need to shut down conversation to get through all of them.

Sometimes, the facilitator will have to ask a some follow-up questions to keep the conversation going.

Helpful follow-up questions:
- How did that make you feel?
- Tell us more about that.
- What made you think of that?

This curriculum will provide you with discussion questions, but you should feel empowered to ask your own questions. This is your small group!

(10 minutes) PRACTICING THE WAY OF LOVE
This curriculum includes a section called “Practicing the Way of Love” which encourages participants to apply what they’ve learned, reflect on their own spiritual practices and find new ways to engage the Way of Love. Facilitators will find the appropriate handout for each week in the appendix of this curriculum.

(5 minutes) CHECK-OUT:
This is an opportunity for the group to assess their group work. It’s a time to articulate what’s been learned, or name what could be better about the group’s time together.

Any question that asks the group to assess their time together would do, but here are some sample check-out questions:
Where did the group have a lot of energy? Where was the energy lacking?
Where did you feel close to God? Where did you feel far away from God?
Where did you meet Jesus in your session today?
Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?
What did you notice about our time together?
What will you take away from our conversation tonight?
[If short on time!] Describe our time together in one word.

(10 Minutes) WORSHIP:
Never skip worship! Taking time to worship God brings the group together unlike anything else, and is probably the single most important thing you’ll do together. You may be tempted by fruitful discussion to neglect worship, but be good stewards of your time and be sure that worship isn’t rushed or skipped altogether. As your group prays with each other each week, you’ll begin to see their relationships transform..

Ideas for Worship:
- Compline in the Book of Common Prayer (p. 127) or Night Prayer in A New Zealand Prayer Book (p. 167)
- Sing simple hymns or Taize chants together
- Pray your own Prayers of the People, as outlined on page 383 of the Book of Common Prayer
- Practice Lectio Divina on a pertinent passage of Scripture
- Offer prayers for the person sitting next to you
- Be with each other and God in silence

Whatever you do, be joyful! Worship doesn’t need to be serious to be worship, but rather only open hearts and invite participation. This curriculum provides a number of worship suggestions; these are just suggestions. Use your imagination and the strengths of your group to make the worship experience your own. Some groups choose to invite different members of the small group to lead worship each week, or to designate a worship leader who is not the facilitator.

6) Pray for your small group.
Facilitators should pray for each person in their group. By name. With regularity. It will make a difference.

7) Commit to the Way of Love
Participants will be able to tell how seriously the facilitator is taking the practices, and will consciously or unconsciously follow that example. As such, facilitators must be open and ready to lead by example and have their life changed by the Way of Love.
The Way of Love: Nine-Week Small Group Curriculum

Session One: Rule of Life

The Way of Love as Rule of Life

Needed material:

- Newsprint
- Markers
- A folder for each participant to store their Way of Love worksheets
- Printed handouts for participants (found in Curriculum Resources)
- Writing utensils

Prayer:

5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous, one found in the Book of Common Prayer, or a prayer familiar to the group such as the Lord’s Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

O God of peace, who has taught us that in returning and rest we will be saved, in quietness and confidence will be our strength: By the might of your Spirit lift us, we pray, to your presence, where we may be still and know that you are God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
(A Prayer For Quiet Confidence, BCP 832)

Check-in:

15 minutes (may be longer during the first session)

For the first check-in session, we recommend asking three questions. Don’t move along to the next question until everyone has either answered or passed. Be sure to re-invite those who passed at the beginning to see if they would like to add anything before you move on to the next question.
• What is your name, religious background, and how long have you been a part of this faith community?
• Why did you want to participate in this Way of Love small group, and what are you hoping to experience?
• What is your favorite routine of your day?

A Rule of Life for your Small Group: Group Norms

20 minutes (may be shorter or longer depending on your group)

This exercise is designed to help set norms for the small group. Norms are the expected standard of behavior for a social group, and setting them at the beginning will help the group function smoothly. (See step four in the facilitation guide on page 2.) When everyone engages with the norm-making and feels part of the discussion, participants are more likely to adhere to the norms and help the group self-regulate. While complete consensus isn’t necessary, there should be general agreement.

Post a large piece of newsprint where everyone can see it.

Here are recommended items for discussion:

• Confidentiality: What is allowed to be shared outside the group? What may be shared on social media? (One often-reached decision is that conversations stay in the group unless the person who shared gives explicit permission for someone else to share their story outside of group.)
• Respect: How will group members respect each other during their conversations? How will group members signal they would like to add something to the discussion? Will participants strive to speak from an “I position” and tell their own stories, not others’ stories? How important is arriving on time to the group? What are expectations around attendance? What constitutes a valid excuse for missing the session?
• Technology: What is the mobile phone policy? Will they be turned off and in the middle of the table? Silenced? Or is casual use acceptable? Will the group make exceptions for important work or family calls?
• Session preparation: What, if anything, are group members supposed to be prepare before they meet each week? How will members of the group pray for one another?
• Logistics: Who will lead worship or bring snacks/meal? Who will help clean up? What is the group’s position about alcohol? Do members of the group have food restrictions?

As items are discussed and consensus reached, write the norms on the newsprint. At the end of the session, take the newsprint down and save it for the next week. You may either use the newsprint from week to week, or type it up and print it out.
Discussion:
25 minutes (may be longer or shorter to accommodate check-in and group norm building)

Background for Discussion:

- The idea of a “Rule of Life’ comes from the Latin word regula and suggests a way to regulate or regularize our lives to stay on an intentional path. A “Rule of Life” is not just a set of rules to live by; rather, it is a gentle framework to guide and support us on our way.
- A “Rule of Life” allows us to live with intention and purpose in the present moment. It helps us clarify our most important values, relationships, dreams, and work.
- A “Rule of Life” is meant to be simple, realistic, flexible, and achievable. It is a purposeful tool to help us grow into a more meaningful life with God.

Questions for Discussion:

- What are some “rules of life” that already exist in our own lives, consciously or unconsciously? Are they helpful, or hurtful?
- Where is God calling you to pay more attention in your life? In what specific ways would you like to be more intentional with God?
- Monastics have been using rules of life for centuries. What do you think is the rule of life’s staying power? What is appealing? What is daunting?
- What is holding you back from being more intentional about your relationship with God? What can you do this week to take down one of those barriers?
- The Way of Love is a Rule of Life. Who could you travel The Way of Love with, helping to keep each other accountable?

Practicing a Rule of Life:

10 minutes

Explanation: Living the Way of Love is less about adding a bunch of spiritual practices to your already busy life and more about intentionally using your time in a way that is fruitful and encourages spiritual, emotional, and mental growth.

Hand out a folder for participants to keep their worksheets over your nine sessions together. Hand out the “The Gift of Time” worksheet and invite participants to map out how they spend their time each week. Encourage them to think about how they use their time. What is harmful or counterproductive, and could be pruned out? What do they wish they had more time to do? What intentional practices in their week do they give thanks for?
Check-out:

5 minutes

Assess the group’s experience during this session. Ask one of the following questions:

- Where did the group have a lot of energy? Where was the energy lacking?
- Where did you feel close to God? Where did you feel far away from God?
- Where did you meet Jesus in your session today?
- Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?
- What did you notice about our time together?
- What will you take away from our conversation tonight?
- [If short on time:] Describe our time together in one word.

Worship:

10 minutes or more

During the first week, the facilitator should plan on leading worship. Depending on your group, however, you may wish to take turns leading worship, even if members of your group don’t have experience leading worship. Small groups are a wonderful place to learn by doing. See page 5 of the facilitator guide for worship suggestions, although the facilitator should encourage worship leaders to get creative.

Here are some resources for worship:

Scripture:
- Isaiah 55:1-3; 6-11
- Psalm 19:7-14
- Romans 12:1-2; 9-21
- John 15:1-11

Prayers:
- Baptismal Covenant (BCP 304-305)
- A Collect for Guidance (BCP 100)
- A Collect for the Renewal of Life (BCP 99)

Hymns:
- Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart (Hymnal 1982, 488)
- Come thou fount of every blessing (Hymnal 1982, 686)
- I have decided to follow Jesus (LEVAS II, 136)
- I want to walk as a child of the light (Hymnal 1982, 490)
- Just a closer walk with thee (LEVAS II, 72)
Session Two: Turn

Pause, Listen, and Choose to Follow Jesus

Needed material:

- Printed handouts for participants (found in Curriculum Resources)
- Writing utensils
- Group norms for participants to reference

Prayer:

5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or to place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or one found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

_O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen._ (Collect for the Second Sunday of Lent, BCP 218)

Check-in:

15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with participants' Way of Love practices by asking one or more of these questions:

- Were you more aware of how you spent your time last week?
- What was the biggest obstacle to using your time purposefully?
- What helps you be more intentional about using your time?
Discussion:

45 minutes

Background for Discussion:
Like the disciples, we are called by Jesus to follow the Way of Love. With God’s help, we can turn from the powers of sin, hatred, fear, injustice, and oppression toward the way of truth, love, hope, justice, and freedom. In turning, we reorient our lives to Jesus Christ, falling in love with Jesus again, again, and again.

Starting the Discussion:
- Tell a story about a time you got physically lost. How did you find your way again?
- Tell a story about a time you changed your mind. What did it take to change your mind? What happened after you changed your mind?
- What is your experience of Lent? How do you feel about Lent? Why?

Questions for Discussion:
- Tell a story about a time you realized you were spiritually lost and had to find your way back to God. What made you turn back toward God?
- Why do you think the Church sets aside the season of Lent for for repentance?
- The Book of Common Prayer offers two Rites of Reconciliation (BCP 446-452). (The Rite of Reconciliation is sometimes colloquially called “Confession.”) Did you know these rites are available? When do you think they might be helpful?
- From Moses to Matthew, Scripture is full of people turning from their old life to a new life in deeper relationship with God. What biblical stories speak to you? How has God called you out of an old life and into the new?
- When everything goes wrong, what practices help you to turn again and again to Jesus Christ and the Way of Love?
- What would it look like in your own life if you turned from the powers of sin, hatred, fear, injustice, and oppression toward the way of truth, love, hope, justice, and freedom? What specifically do you need to turn away from in your own life? What do you need to turn toward?
- What is one step you can take this week towards the Way of Love?
Practicing the Way of Love

10 minutes

Hand out a copy of the worksheet, “Practicing the Way of Love.” Ensure that all participants have writing utensils, and encourage them to fill out the worksheet and to add Turn to their Way of Love working rule of life. Gently remind participants that a modest change sustained over time is better than a dramatic but unsustainable change. Participants should begin incorporating this new practice into their Way of Love practices the following day.

Some recommendations for Turn: Pray the Confession found in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP 79) each day; work on forgiving a wrong; read pray through Form One or Form Two of Reconciliation of a Penitent (BCP 447, 449); read Psalm 51 each morning or night. Practice the Daily Examen. (You might list a practice you are already engaged in that gives life to you.)

Check-out:

5 minutes

Assess the group’s experience during this session. Ask one of the following questions:

- Where did the group have a lot of energy? Where was the energy lacking?
- Where did you feel close to God? Where did you feel far away from God?
- Where did you meet Jesus in your session today?
- Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?
- What did you notice about our time together?
- What will you take away from our conversation tonight?
- [If short on time!] Describe our time together in one word.

Session Three: Learn

Reflect on Scripture each day, especially on Jesus’ life and teachings

Needed material:

- Printed handouts for participants (found in Curriculum Resources)
- Writing utensils
- Group norms for participants to reference

Prayer:

5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or to place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or as found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

_Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen._ (Collect for Proper 28, BCP 236)

Check-in:

15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with participants’ Way of Love practices by asking one or more of these questions:

- What’s been working well with your Turn practice? What hasn’t been working well?
- What did you learn about yourself? God? What adjustments might support you in the Way of Love?
- What has surprised you about your Turn practice?
- Name a gift that your practice has given you this week.
Discussion:

45 minutes

Background for Discussion:
By reading and reflecting on Scripture, especially the life and teachings of Jesus, we draw near to God and God’s word dwells in us. When we open our minds and hearts to Scripture, we learn to see God’s story and God’s activity in everyday life.

Starting the Discussion:

- What is your favorite passage of Scripture? What does it mean to you?
- Have you ever tried to read the Bible all the way through? Describe your experience.
- If you could have coffee with any person (other than Jesus) from Scripture, who would it be? What would you ask that person?

Questions for Discussion:

- The Catechism says that “God still speaks to us through the Bible.” (BCP 853) How has God spoken to you through Scripture? How does God speak to the Church through Scripture?
- What is your favorite story about Jesus? What about it speaks to you?
- How does hearing the stories of God working in the world in Scripture help you spot God working in the world today?
- What is the sermon you have always wanted, but have never heard, preached? What scripture would you use?
- How has your approach to understanding Scripture changed over time? Has this changed how you relate to God and others?
- What ways of reflecting on Scripture are the most life-giving for you?
- What gets in the way of making time to read and reflect on Scripture in your day? What is one thing you can do to set aside time for Scripture?

Practicing the Way of Love

10 minutes

Hand out a copy of the worksheet, “Practicing the Way of Love.” Ensure that all participants have writing utensils, and encourage them to fill out the worksheet. Give permission to adapt or discard a practice they tried that was not life-giving. This is a work in progress. Instruct participants to add a practice for Learn to their Way of Love working rule of life. Gently remind participants that a modest change sustained over time is better than a dramatic but unsustainable change. Participants should begin incorporating this new practice into their Way of Love practices the following day.
Some recommendations for Learn: read the scripture from the Daily Office Lectionary found in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP 934) or online through various websites or apps, take up a bible reading plan, read a daily devotional, practice lectio divina, listen to a podcast that includes scripture such as pray-as-you-go. (You might list a practice you are already engaged in that gives life to you.)

Check-out:

5 minutes

Assess the group’s experience during this session. Ask one of the following questions:

- Where did the group have a lot of energy? Where was the energy lacking?
- Where did you feel close to God? Where did you feel far away from God?
- Where did you meet Jesus in your session today?
- Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?
- What did you notice about our time together?
- What will you take away from our conversation tonight?
- [If short on time!] Describe our time together in one word.

Session Four: Pray

Dwell intentionally with God each day

Needed material:

- Printed handouts for participants (found in Curriculum Resources)
- Writing utensils
- Group norms for participants to reference

Prayer:

5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or as found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (Collect for Proper 22, BCP 234)

Check-in:

15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with participants' Way of Love practices by asking one or more of these questions:

- What was adding Learn in your practice like? What did you learn about yourself? God?
  How are your other Way of Love practices going?
- What’s been working well with your Way of Love practices? What hasn’t been working well? What adjustments might support you in the Way of Love?
- What has surprised you about your Way of Love practices?
- Name a gift that your practices have given you this week.
Discussion:

50 minutes

Background for Discussion:
Jesus teaches us to come before God with humble hearts, boldly offering our thanksgivings and concerns to God or simply listening for God’s voice in our lives and in the world. Whether in thought, word or deed, individually or corporately, when we pray we invite and dwell in God’s loving presence.

Starting the Discussion:

- When do you feel closest to God during your day?
- What is your favorite way to pray?
- Share a story of how prayer has impacted your life.
- Which person of the Trinity do you most often address in your prayers?

Questions for Discussion:

- What part of the Lord’s Prayer are you drawn to right now? Why?
- In the story of the boy Samuel in 1 Samuel 3, Samuel confuses the voice of God with the voice of Eli. Have you ever mistaken God’s voice for someone else’s? Or, have you heard God through the words of others?
- The Book of Psalms includes many psalms thanksgiving, but also psalms of lament. What changes when we can pour out all of our life, the good and the bad, to God?
- What does “God’s loving presence” look like in your life? Or what could it look like?
- Kathy Stoudt, a spiritual director and seminary professor likes to say, “Five minutes of silence a day is the spiritual equivalent of flossing your teeth.” How can you foster silence and receptivity to God in your own life?
- What intentional prayer practices center you in God’s presence, so you can hear, speak, or simply dwell with God? How do you invite God to dwell in you? If you don’t know about intentional prayer practices, where could you get more information?
- What stands in the way of a more active and consistent prayer life? What are simple (or not so simple) changes you can make to be more present to God throughout your day?

Practicing the Way of Love

10 minutes

Hand out a copy of the worksheet, “Practicing the Way of Love.” Ensure that all participants have writing utensils, and encourage them to fill out the worksheet. Give permission to adapt or discard a practice they tried that was not life-giving. This is a work in progress. Instruct participants to add a practice for Pray to their Way of Love working rule of life. Gently remind participants that a modest change sustained over time is better than a dramatic but unsustainable change. Participants should begin incorporating this new practice into their Way of Love practices the following day.

Some recommendations for Pray: Set aside a specific period of time for contemplative silence, contemplative writing, using prayer beads, walking and praying, practicing Ignatian prayer, praying by coloring, praying the Daily Devotions for Individuals and Families (BCP 136). (You might list a practice you are already engaged in that gives life to you.)

Check-out:

5 minutes

Assess the group’s experience during this session. Ask one of the following questions:

- Where did the group have a lot of energy? Where was the energy lacking?
- Where did you feel close to God? Where did you feel far away from God?
- Where did you meet Jesus in your session today?
- Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?
- What did you notice about our time together?
- What will you take away from our conversation tonight?
- [If short on time!] Describe our time together in one word.

Needed material:

- Writing utensils
- Group norms for participants to reference

Prayer:

5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or as found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
(A Collect for the Third Sunday of Easter, BCP 224)

Check-in:

15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with participants’ Way of Love practices by asking one or more of these questions:

- What was adding Pray to your practice like? What did you learn about yourself? God? How are your other Way of Love practices going?
- What’s been working well with your Way of Love practices? What hasn’t been working well? What adjustments are you thinking about?
- What has surprised you about your Way of Love practices?
- Name a gift that your practices have given you this week.
Discussion:

45 minutes

Background for Discussion:
When we worship, we gather with others before God. We hear the Good News of Jesus, give thanks, confess, and offer the brokenness of the world to God. As we break bread, our eyes are opened to the presence of Christ. By the power of the Holy Spirit, we are made one body, the body of Christ sent forth to live the Way of Love.

Starting the Discussion:

● What is your favorite Sunday or other service of the Church year? Why?
● What is your favorite hymn? Why? (What is your least favorite hymn? Why?)
● What is the most meaningful part of a worship service for you? Why?

Questions for Discussion:

● Read the second verse of the hymn “I come with joy to meet my Lord”:

  \[\text{I come with Christians far and near}\\
  \text{To find, as all are fed}\\
  \text{The new community of love}\\
  \text{In Christ’s communion bread}\]

  What does a “new community of love” mean to you? How has this community changed your life?
● Talk about a time you experienced God’s presence in a worship service.
● What is your favorite way to worship God outside of Church?
● Have you ever participated in worship leadership (like ushering, acolyting, reading, etc.)? How has that changed your perception of what it means to worship?
● What do you think it means to have the eyes of our faith opened? (From the collect for the Third Sunday of Easter; also Luke 24:31)
● What prevents you from coming to worship with your community on a weekly basis? How can you remove some of those obstacles?
● What communal worship practices move you to encounter God and knit you into the body of Christ?
Practicing the Way of Love

10 minutes

Hand out a copy of the worksheet, “Practicing the Way of Love.” Ensure that all participants have writing utensils, and encourage them to fill out the worksheet. Give permission to adapt or discard a practice they tried that was not life-giving. This is a work in progress. Instruct participants to add a practice for Worship to their Way of Love working rule of life. Gently remind participants that a modest change sustained over time is better than a dramatic but unsustainable change. Participants should begin incorporating this new practice into their Way of Love practices the following day.

Some recommendations for Worship: attend worship weekly, identify a way to be more fully present in worship (could include arriving early for a time of silence or to say a prayer of thanksgiving before worship), pray for your worshipping community each day. (You might list a practice you are already engaged in that gives life to you.)

Check-out:

  ● Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?

(A Collect for Proper 5, BCP 229)

Check-in:
15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with participants’ Way of Love practices by asking one or more of these questions:

- Name a gift that your practices have given you this week.
Discussion:

45 minutes

Background for Discussion:
Jesus called his disciples to give, forgive, teach, and heal in his name. We are empowered by the Spirit to bless everyone we meet, practicing generosity and compassion and proclaiming the Good News of God in Christ with hopeful words and selfless actions. We can share our stories of blessing and invite others to the Way of Love.

Starting the Discussion:

- What is the best gift you have ever been given? Why was it so special?
- Who was the first person who told you about Jesus?
- Name a time you were blessed. What happened? How did you feel?

Questions for Discussion:

- What have you been freely given? What can you freely give? (Matt 10:8; NIV)
- Where is God already working in your neighborhood? How could you partner with God to bring about blessings and love for those around you?
- Who in your life could you invite to join you in the Way of Love?
- God gives us gifts so that we can share them. What are your spiritual gifts? What are the ways you share them with your community of faith and your community at large? (1 Cor 12) What else have you been gifted?
- What are the things that get in the way of sharing your faith or sharing God’s blessings? Are they the same things, or different?
- What is one practice of generosity or compassion you could commit to trying this week?
- What are the ways the Spirit is calling you to bless others in your community?

Practicing the Way of Love

10 minutes

Hand out a copy of the worksheet, “Practicing the Way of Love.” Ensure that all participants have writing utensils, and encourage them to fill out the worksheet. Give permission to adapt or discard a practice they tried that was not life-giving. This is a work in progress. Instruct participants to add a practice for Bless to their Way of Love working rule of life. Gently remind participants that a modest change sustained over time is better than a dramatic but unsustainable change. Participants should begin incorporating this new practice into their Way of Love practices the following day.
Some recommendations for Bless: Begin regular volunteer shifts at a local non-profit, check on a shut-in neighbor, invite a different neighbor or colleague to coffee each week to ask about their life and concerns, practice sharing how God’s been working in your own life, any specific and concrete way your life can bring life and joy to others, take on a practice of stewardship for creation such as composting. (You might list a practice you are already engaged in that gives life to you and others.)

Prayer:

The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or as found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen. (Prayer attributed to St. Francis, BCP 833)

Check-in:
15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with participants' Way of Love practices by asking one or more of these questions:

- What has surprised you about your Way of Love practices?
- Name a gift that your practices have given you this week.
Discussion:

45 minutes

Background for Discussion:
As Jesus went to the highways and byways, he sends us beyond our circles and comfort, to witness to the love, justice, and truth of God with our lips and with our lives. We go to listen with humility and to join God in healing a hurting world. We go to become Beloved Community, a people reconciled in love with God and one another.

Starting the Discussion:
- Who is your most unlikely friend? How did you become friends?
- Where do you feel Jesus’s absence most keenly in the world?
- Tell a story about a time you went beyond your comfort zone.

Questions for Discussion:
- Name a time you have experienced reconciliation. What had to happen before the reconciliation could occur? How did that reconciliation change your relationship with others or God?
- Where does reconciliation need to happen in your community? How would reconciliation change your community?
- What would love, justice, and the truth of God look like in your community?
- How could you faithfully discern where reconciliation needs to happen?
- What is one thing you could do this week to heal your world?

Gently remind participants that a modest change sustained over time is better than a dramatic but unsustainable change. Participants should begin incorporating this new practice into their Way of Love practices the following day.

Some recommendations for Go: Identify a community that is unlike your own and learn about the community either by attending an event, reading, or reaching out to a friend in that community; share about your faith with another person once each week; (You might list a practice you are already engaged in that gives life to you.)

- Group norms for participants to reference

Prayer:

5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or as found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

O God of peace, who has taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and confidence shall be our strength: By the might of you Spirit lift us, we pray, to your presence, where we may be still and know that your are God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (A Prayer For Quiet Confidence, BCP 832)

Check-in:

15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with participants’ Way of Love practices by asking one or more of these questions:

- What was adding Go like? What did you learn about yourself? God? How are your other Way of Love practices going?
- What’s been working well with your Way of Love practices? What hasn’t been working well? What adjustments might support you in the Way of Love?
- What has surprised you about your Way of Love practices?
- Name a gift that your practices have given you this week.
Discussion:

45 minutes

Background for Discussion:
From the beginning of creation, God has established the sacred pattern of going and returning, labor and rest. Especially today, God invites us to dedicate time for restoration and wholeness - within our bodies, minds, and souls, and within our communities and institutions. By resting we place our trust in God, the primary actor who brings all things to their fullness.

Starting the Discussion:
- Describe your ideal day of rest and refreshment.
- When was the last time you paused to rest?
- As a child, what was your favorite way to play?

Questions for Discussion:
- When was the last time you felt truly refreshed and rested? How did it change your perspective?
- What practices restore your body, mind, and soul?
- How is your productivity linked to your self-worth? Has there been a time in your life when your productivity was not linked to your self-worth? What was this like?
- What would the peace of Jesus look like in your life? (John 14:27 or 20:19)
- What do you think it means to keep the sabbath holy? (Exodus 20:8)
- What keeps you from pursuing time of peace and restoration?
- What is one thing you could change in your life to allow yourself more time for rest?

Practicing the Way of Love

10 minutes

Hand out a copy of the worksheet, “Practicing the Way of Love.” Ensure that all participants have writing utensils, and encourage them to fill out the worksheet. Give permission to adapt or discard a practice they tried that was not life-giving. This is a work in progress. Instruct participants to add a practice for Rest to their Way of Love working rule of life. Gently remind participants that a modest change sustained over time is better than a dramatic but unsustainable change. Participants should begin incorporating this new practice into their Way of Love practices the following day.
Some recommendations for Rest: choose a day or a time of week in which you don’t work, take up a hobby, set limits on social media consumption/technology use (such as turning off your cell phone during meals and at bedtime), set regular time apart to be by yourself or with family and friends without an agenda or distractions, take a walk or bicycle in your neighborhood or park.

Rest is the final practice of the Way of Love. When the participants have completed their “Practicing the Way of Love” worksheet, hand out the final worksheet, “My Rule of Life: The Way of Love.” Instruct your small group to take this worksheet home, look over their worksheets from the last eight weeks, carefully consider what has been working and what hasn’t been working, and to craft a realistic rule of life for themselves. Participants should bring their “My Rule of Life” worksheet back to share with others during the final session.

Check-out:
5 minutes

Assess the group’s experience during this session. Ask one of the following questions:
- Where did the group have a lot of energy? Where was the energy lacking?
- Where did you feel close to God? Where did you feel far away from God?
- Where did you meet Jesus in your session today?
- Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?

Session Nine: Living the Way of Love

Committing to the Way of Love

Note:
Due to the presentations in the middle of this small group session, this session may last longer than the typical 90 minutes. You may either want to set aside two hours for this session, or simply be very careful to watch the time during the presentations. Large groups will have to be more careful with their time than smaller groups.

Needed material:
- Newsprint
- Markers
- Group norms for participants to reference
- Participants’ new rules of life for sharing with the group
- Way of Love Commitment Covenant Liturgy for each participant (found in Curriculum Resources)

Prayer:
5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or as found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side.

We thank you for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.
Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know the Spirit and make the Spirit known; and through the Spirit, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to you in all things. Amen. (A General Thanksgiving, BCP 836)

Check-in:

15 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with your group by asking them one or more of these questions:

- What impact has adding Rest to your Way of Love practices made in your life? What did you learn about yourself? God?
- What has surprised you most about our time together over the last eight weeks?
- What has been your greatest blessing during the life of this small group?
- How do you hope your life will change as a result of living your rule of life?

Discussion:

35-55 minutes

Instead of an intentional small group discussion, participants will share their own Way of Love rule with the group. While length will depend on the number of participants, each presentation should not last longer than four or five minutes.
Practicing the Way of Love: Accountability Exercise

20 minutes

As a group, discuss the following:

- Where does the group see God moving in one another’s lives over the past eight weeks?
- What are ways members of this group can support individuals as they strive to live into their new rule of life? The group should agree on at least three tangible ways members of the group will support one another. As you converse, write the suggestions on newsprint, and be sure to capture what the group has agreed upon.
- When is the next time the group will meet for the recommitment/refresher session? Put that date on the calendar. The group may want to come up with a recurring date on a monthly or bi-monthly basis.

Check-out:

5 minutes

Ask the following question:
- What are you grateful for during your time together?

Worship:

10 minutes or more

See the Way of Love Covenant in the Curriculum Resources section. Your small group may wish to hold a Eucharist and incorporate the Way of Love covenant and an in-gathering and blessing of rules of life during the offertory.

If the small group is part of a larger parish initiative around the Way of Love, the facilitator may wish to discuss an in-gathering and blessing of the rules of life during the principal service on Sunday with church leadership. You might consider having the participants make the covenant after the prayers of the people and before the peace, or having an extra offering plate go around for the rules.

Way of Love Small Group
Recommitment Session

Helping each other along the way

Needed material:

- Printed handouts for participants (found in Curriculum Resources)
- Writing utensils
- Group norms for participants to reference

Prayer:

5 minutes

Begin with at least a minute of centering silence, preferably two or three. You may find it helpful to light a candle or place another devotional item in the center of your discussion circle. The worship leader for the week should conclude the time of silence with a prayer, either extemporaneous or as found in the Book of Common Prayer. The worship leader may wish to use the prayer below:

Almighty and everlasting God, you have brought us in safety to this new day: Preserve us with your mighty power, that we may not fall into sin, nor be overcome by adversity; and in all we do, direct us to the fulfilling of your purpose; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (A Collect for Grace, BCP 100)

Check-in:

20 minutes

Using the process of mutual invitation, check-in with your group by asking them one or more of these questions:

- How have you been since the last time we gathered? What is going really well right now, and what isn’t going so well?
- What has surprised you about your Way of Love practices?
- Name a gift that your practices have given you since the last time the group gathered together.
Discussion:

50 minutes

Background for Discussion:
Spiritual practices are just that; practices, which mean they need practicing. Mutual support and encouragement is the vital difference between a life-giving rule of life and a piece of paper in a drawer. Discovering the best way to support one another also takes time and practice, but with intentionality and accountability your group can help one another.

Questions for Discussion:

- How has God shown up in your practices?
- Which practices give you energy? Do any only take away energy? Is it time to change that practice, or lean in?
- Is your rule of life too much, or not enough?
- What is your biggest stumbling block to practicing any or all of your rule? What can you do to remove that obstacle?
- What has been your best source of accountability? Do you need more or less accountability?
- As a whole, is the group adhering to the practices of support it outlined in session nine? Are these realistic practices? How could they be changed to be more helpful?
- How can you be a better encourager to others in your group?
- When is the next time the group will meet?

Check-out:

5 minutes

Assess the group’s experience during this session. Ask one of the following questions:
- Where did the group have a lot of energy? Where was the energy lacking?
- Where did you feel close to God? Where did you feel far away from God?
- Where did you meet Jesus in your session today?
- Where did you see light from the Holy Spirit?
- What did you notice about our time together?
- [If short on time!] Describe our time together in one word.

WAY OF LOVE COMMITMENT COVENANT

Leader: Jesus’ way is the way of love. In him we find more love, freedom and abundant life. You are invited to turn toward Jesus and to commit to follow his Way of Love in the context of Christian community, trusting in his power to change each of our lives and to change this world.

After each bidding, all who desire to make this commitment should join in proclaiming: By the Spirit’s power, we will.

Leader: Will you turn and center your life on Jesus, falling in love with our Lord again and again and again?
People: By the Spirit’s power, we will.

Leader: Will you ground your life in the life and teachings of Jesus, as revealed in scripture? And will you pray and simply listen for God’s voice in your life and in the world?
People: By the Spirit’s power, we will.

Leader: Will you gather together in worship, to break bread and to thank and praise God? And will you bless this world with your story, your resources, and your labor?
People: By the Spirit’s power, we will.

Leader: Will you cross boundaries and fearlessly become God’s Beloved Community? And will you take rest, receiving God’s gift of grace and restoration, and letting God be God?
People: By the Spirit’s power, we will.

Leader: May the God who formed all things in Love, draw you near to God’s own heart, empower you by the power of the Spirit to live the Way of Love with fellow travelers, and send you to participate in the resurrection and healing of God’s world. And may the blessing of our Lord – loving, liberating and life-giving – be with us and remain with us forever and ever.

All: Amen.

Optional Song: “I Have Decided to Follow Jesus” (#136, Lift Every Voice and Sing II Hymnal)
