

A Christian Life of Faith: Signs and Thresholds along The Way

I AM

A BAPTIZED CHRISTIAN

WHO WONDERS...

How can I participate in and practice a Christian life of faith as a baptized Episcopalian, conforming to Christ's way of life and continually being transformed on my lifelong journey of faith?

Following The Way

A Christian life of faith is premised on being in relationship with God and with God's people. We have assurances from those who have come before us that God wants us to have life and have it in abundance. We claim this fullness of life as we travel with God on a journey that has three dimensions:

- It is lifelong—unfolding chronologically across one's life;
- It is life-wide—integrating formative events and experiences from across one's contexts; and
- It is life-deep—making meaning influenced by culture, beliefs, attitudes, emotions, ideologies and values.

As we meander through life's labyrinth, individually and in community, we gain insights and make connections between and across our experiences of faith in the church and in the world.

Through them we glean a glimpse of the dream God offers. Sometimes the path to reach it is clear; other times it seems illusive. Fortunately for those of us who want help navigating our way, there are recognizable signs of maturing in our relationship with God. They are marks of our deepening knowledge and understanding, the shaping of our values and attitudes, as well as the honing of our practices and skills. As we more fully embrace our identity as disciples and members of the Body of Christ, there also are thresholds that we can cross. These steps mark accepting increased responsibility to proclaim God's loving, liberating, life-giving Good News (evangelism) and to help others to find their path as we pass on our faith (faith formation).

This document is our attempt to identify the signs and thresholds of a faith-filled journey. It is designed in two parts which reflect the ways two groups likely will use it. Both parts of this booklet include the same signs and thresholds; the signs and thresholds are just presented differently. The first part is primarily for individuals who may want to wonder, widen, and deepen their understanding of themselves and of God. For them, the signs and thresholds are a type of discernment or self-assessment tool to prompt reflection upon where they are in their personal faith and ministry development. This section identifies four thresholds—Claiming, Engaging, Sustaining, and Cultivating/Catalyzing—and uses each “stage” or “phase” to organize the typical focus, questions, and signs of someone in this space. The hope is that individuals using this part will find descriptions that resonate and affirm their strengths and capacities as well as indicate areas where they may want to stretch and search for resources that enhance spiritual growth and leadership. The second part is primarily intended for those responsible for passing on the teachings of the church (such as Vestry members, Commissions on Ministry, faith formation leaders, spiritual directors, clergy, chaplains, diocesan directors, etc.). This section compiles the signs and thresholds into a grid for comparison across thresholds. This design should help facilitators, companions, and/or teachers to see the scope and sequence of how the stages relate and guide their adaptation of educational and formational resources for local contexts. The hope is that the signs and thresholds promote deeper faith and ministry development in a congregation, intentional community, or diocese. Regardless of the form you use, we hope you find it useful.

The seeds of this document were planted in the summer of 2019 when colleagues in faith formation and ministry development circles embraced God's invitation and committed to produce this guide. It is our gift to the church. Recognizing that it is only a starting point, we want (and need) to hear your reactions to it, especially as you use it in your context. Tell us what is missing and how can it be improved and refined. Send your feedback and recommendations to Julie Lytle at jlytle@bexleyseabury.edu. We offer our thanks and blessings for your journey!

GUIDELINES FOR USING PART I AND PART II

While linear in its presentation and format, we caution against a prescriptive use of these signs and thresholds. The way in which each of us grows in our relationship with God and lives a Christian life of faith is unique. Some of us travel more direct paths while others take a more circuitous path. To avoid the potential slip to use these signs and thresholds for assessment, we offer these guidelines of use to the different groups that may want to use them:

General guidelines for individuals and groups:

- Much like walking a labyrinth, a life of faith is full of twists and turns.
- Enter the discernment from any of the sections. There is no prescribed order or direction.
- Take your time.
- Read each description.
- Celebrate strengths and embrace areas of growth.
- Reflect upon what the signs say about personal faith and ministry possibilities.
- Allow space for silence.
- Listen for what God is up to and where nudges are being felt.
- Journaling may be helpful.
- Talking with a spiritual director or trusted friend may be helpful.
- Recognize and celebrate a current path; consider future directions.
- Consider the questions as guides for reflection, not as assignments to complete.
- Remember, this is intended as a support, not a burden.

For LOCAL CONGREGATIONS guiding personal and communal discernment:

- Local discernment teams might use these signs and thresholds as well as the discernment questions with anyone in the congregation who may be interested in life direction.
- Search committees might incorporate discernment questions into their interview times.
- Some of the questions might be helpful in Identifying lay leaders in a congregation.
- Vestries/Bishop's committees might find the signs and thresholds useful as they help to identify those who may be called to ordained ministry.

For COMMISSIONS ON MINISTRY guiding personal discernment:

- Grid and discernment questions might be helpful in interviews.
- COM liaisons might use discernment questions with persons in the process toward ordination.
- COMs might find this useful in their work as advisors on lay ministries throughout the diocese.

PART I: SIGNS & THRESHOLDS FOR INDIVIDUALS

This document is for individuals who want to wonder, widen, and deepen your understanding of yourself and of God. You are encouraged to use these pages to identify where you feel confident and capable as well as where you feel unsure. The four thresholds—Claiming, Engaging, Sustaining, and Cultivating/Catalyzing—are offered as indicators of a maturing Christian life. They are designed to prompt reflection upon where you are in your personal faith and ministry development and suggest the knowledge, skills, and practices needed to follow Jesus at significant points in a faith journey. Together, the signs and thresholds are intended as a tool to aid discernment or self-assessment and are not an inventory for evaluation or judgment. Instead, the thresholds are simply containers that you use to get a sense of where you may be and where you may want to explore during your faith journey. The format for each of the thresholds is the same; they start with a brief description of typical characteristics of someone at this point in their faith journey and then list signs that we hope they can confidently express within the faith community and in the world. We encourage you to read each description, reflect upon what the signs say about your personal faith and ministry development, recognize your strengths, and identify where you want to grow. They are offered with blessings for the journey.

THRESHOLD I: CLAIMING

I have been baptized and am beginning to claim a new faith as I come to know God's Story

Characteristics: curious, seeks understanding, desires affiliation and sense of belonging

Focus: Energies, primarily self-introspective, to gain grounding and become rooted in a new faith

- Who am I as a Christian?
- How do I hear and discover what being a Christian means for me?
- How do I hear and discover what being an Episcopalian means for me?

Pedagogical Stage: BLOOM's TAXONOMY: Remembering, Understanding

SIGNS WITHIN THE FAITH COMMUNITY (Formation)

I feel confident and competent in and am able to:

Scripture

Representing Christ

- See God in all people.
- See the world through the life and teachings of Jesus.
- Think differently about decision-making because of my faith.
- Listen and participate respectfully when various perspectives are presented respectfully.
- Recognize responsibility to vulnerable people and places.

THRESHOLD II: A STORY OF ENGAGING

I meet others who know God’s Story and engage with them in communion.

Characteristics: seeking, connecting, exploring

Focus: Energies primarily oriented to engaging in community

- What gifts do I bring to the community?
- What value do I add? How/What am I contributing?
- How do my relationships help me understand God more fully?

Pedagogical Stage: BLOOM’S TAXONOMY: Applying

- Strive for justice and peace as a witness of my faith.
- Connect my actions to God’s mission of love, liberation and life for all of creation.
- Share my time, talent, and financial resources sacrificially.

THRESHOLD IV: A STORY OF CULTIVATING-CATALYZING

I help others “wrestle” with God and God’s Story cultivating their faith and catalyzing their engagement in God’s Mission.

Characteristics: confident in leading, called & calling, capacity building, courageous, co-create

Focus: Cultivate OTHER’s maturing in faith and catalyze their engagement in God’s Mission

- How am I called to companion others?
- How can I invite others into discipleship?
- How can/do I pass on faith to others?
- How do I spark other’s engagement in God’s Mission?

Pedagogical Stage: BLOOM’S TAXONOMY: Evaluating, Creating

SIGNS WITHIN THE FAITH COMMUNITY (Formation)

I feel confident and competent in and am able to:

Scripture

- Facilitate others’ exploration of the connections between our Individual Stories, our collective stories, and God’s Story from multiple perspectives.
- Teach others how to engage theological resources for personal and communal reflection and response.

Episcopal Tradition

- Lead opportunities to learn about the Episcopal Way and its foundational elements and their role in life choices.
- Lead the development and implementation of ideas/ programming to incorporate growth, reflection, and continued practice that leads to deepening of Episcopal Identities.
- Encourage ministry collaborations that utilize the gifts of the laity in partnership with deacons, priests and bishops.
- Guide others’ discernment of ways to use their gifts in the faith community.
- Assist others with their prayer life.
- Train liturgical leaders.

Theology

- Create opportunities to restore unity with God and others in Christ and develop processes/practices to dismantle barriers for individuals and community members to claim their belovedness in God.
- Teach the community to understand sin and grace.
- Call my faith community to deeper reflection on its role in God's Mission and mentor others in recognizing God's invitation to them as members of the Body of Christ.
- Create opportunities for community members to critically engage and systematically study our human experience of God and deepen our relationship with God.
- Teach the interconnections of history, theology, and moral decision-making based in Scripture, the Baptismal Covenant, the Book of Common Prayer.

Representing Christ

- Equip others for their discernment and gifts appreciation.
- Recognize and cultivate the gift/s of others.
- Seek ways to empower my faith community to understand historical inequities and suffering caused by religion and indifference.
- Invite and inspire others to claim their place in God's Mission.
- Prepare members for participation and leadership in worship.
- Prepare others for leadership roles.

SIGNS IN THE WORLD (Evangelization)

I feel confident and competent in and am able to:

Scripture

- Share the Christian Story while equipping others' learning and questioning.
- Equip others to share God's story in a variety of ways.
- Lead communal reflections on contemporary circumstances, issues and concerns, and facilitates communal responses to them.

Episcopal Tradition

- Create and lead rituals inspired by my faith in my public community.
- Create environments where life's questions can be engaged in faith-filled ways from lots of perspectives.
- Host gracious and brave conversations with guidelines for sharing that honor all perspectives.

Theology

- Teach others how to listen to voices from the margins and develop justice-seeking responses that address systemic injustice.
- Embrace diversities with and among cultural and religious groups.
- Risk asking and leading dialogue of unspoken questions.
- Facilitate the creation of opportunities to join God's Mission with others.

Representing Christ

- Inspire others to right relationships with God, self, others and all creation.
- Create space for healing and reconciling.
- Seek ways to empower my wider community to understand historical inequities and suffering caused by religion and indifference.
- Engage in ongoing collaboration with the wider community to speak truth to power.
- Monitor coherence between what I/we say and what I/we do.

PART II: SIGNS & THRESHOLDS FOR THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR PASSING ON THE TEACHINGS OF THE CHURCH

PREAMBLE: Lifelong, Life-wide, and Life-deep Faith and Ministry Development for all Baptized Episcopalians¹

In the Episcopal Church, the Baptismal Covenant articulates the relationship God establishes with us in Holy Baptism and defines who we are as Christians and Episcopalians. It offers questions that explore how we know God: Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit). It also highlights the work God has given us to do:

- to continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers;
- to resist evil and repent when we fall into sin;
- to proclaim the Good News of God in Christ through word and example;
- to seek and serve Christ in all people; and
- to strive for justice and peace and respect the dignity of every human being.²

How we each experience God, grow in faith, and discern our response to God's invitation is unique. What we share—sometimes more individually and sometimes more collectively—is a lifelong, life-wide, and life-deep³ journey through which we develop the skills to respond to God's invitation to be the body of Christ both within our faith communities and within the world.

This document is primarily intended for members of a faith community at the local or diocesan level (such as Vestry members, Commissions on Ministry, faith formation leaders, spiritual directors, clergy, chaplains, and those responsible for passing on the teachings of the church, etc.) who serve formally or informally as catalyzers and cultivators of other adults' faith journeys. The document is designed to help these facilitators, guides, and/or teachers to adapt resources to local contexts in order to promote deeper faith and ministry development in a congregation, intentional community, or diocese. It is created to be a resource to generate opportunities for fellow travelers to wonder, widen, and deepen their understanding of themselves and of God as well as to gain confidence in their grasp of the knowledge, skills, and practices needed to follow Jesus. This is not meant to be a static document but flexible; local leadership is encouraged to adapt and adjust to fit their own contexts and needs.

While designed primarily for catalyzers and cultivators of faith, it is important to be clear—faith and ministry development are the work of all baptized people, not just those who may consider themselves leaders or potential leaders in the church. All baptized Christians are ministers and are called to join God's mission both in the church and in the world. Thus, individuals also may use this document as a discernment or self-assessment tool (See Part I of this document) to reflect upon where they are in their personal faith and ministry development – recognizing strengths and prompting the search for additional resources for growth in spirituality and leadership. While linear in its presentation and format, it can also be visualized as a labyrinth, entering at a certain point and following a path that has twists and turns, with new perspectives gained along the way.

To that end, this document is offered as both a map and a set of map-making elements. As a map, without presuming a particular entry point or sequence,⁴ the document attempts to identify recognizable signs and thresholds of one's faith journey through a four-phased continuum. The continuum encompasses

² The Book of Common Prayer, pp 304–305.

³ Lifelong reminds that a journey of faith unfolds chronologically across one's life. Life-wide reminds that a journey of faith integrates formative events and experiences from across one's contexts. Life-deep reminds that the meaning-making that occurs while on a journey of is influenced by culture, beliefs, attitudes, emotions, ideologies and values.

recognizable signs of maturing in our relationship with God that mark deepening knowledge and understanding, the shaping of values and attitudes, as well as the honing of practices and skills. There are also thresholds to cross as an identity as disciples and members of the Body of Christ is more fully embraced. Decisions are then made to accept increased responsibility to proclaim God’s loving, liberating, life-giving Good News (evangelism) and to help others to find their path as we pass on our faith (faith formation). These threshold crossings can be described as “movements” between four “stages” which are experienced differently by each person:⁵

- Claiming—starting to grow in Christian faith as an Episcopal expression;
- Emerging—deepening individual faith through connection to a community of faith;
- Sustaining—engaging in faithful service, consistent spiritual practices, and participation in various aspects of life and leadership within the church and within the world; and
- Cultivating and Catalyzing—inspiring, supporting and passing on the faith to others on their lifelong faith journey.⁵

As a set of map-making elements (the significant sites, potential routes, and legends for interpretation), this document highlights four areas that capture the breadth of what it means to follow Jesus within an Episcopal context:

- Scripture,
- Episcopal Tradition (including history and liturgy),
- Theology, and
- Representing Christ (including ethics and moral theology).

Together, these elements chart demonstrable competencies we express as we follow the call to discipleship more fully. They also provide a critical foundation for consistently engaging in practices of reconciliation—confronting sins that limit human dignity such as racism, sexism, ableism, and clericalism.

The authors of this document understand “competencies” as active elements that demonstrate we are growing and getting better at something throughout the course of our lives—that we are living as disciples. Beyond a transcript that outlines content with which we have engaged, competencies also describe attitudes and practices we claim as we grow through phases of faith and ministry development. We like to think of competencies as “confidences—feelings or consciousness of one’s powers.” Each time we deepen our knowledge, sharpen our skills, embrace Christ-like attitudes and respond in faith, we show how we are gaining confidence as we strive to follow Jesus more nearly, deepen our relationship with God, and respond to God’s presence in our lives.

Background of this Document

The Anglican Primates initiated the creation of similar maps and map-making elements in 2003 when they established a task force on Theological Education for the Anglican Communion (TEAC). TEAC’s aim is to help all Anglican Christians to be theologically alert and sensitive to the call of God. TEAC focused on an “Outcomes Based” model for education and encouraged a shift from “What does a person know?” to “What competencies does the learner need to gain in order to be able to fulfil this or that task/job/vocation?”⁶ TEAC offered a set of “ministry grids” for bishops, priests, deacons, licensed lay ministers, and lay people with the hope that each of the Anglican Communion Provinces would adapt them for local use. Within the Episcopal Church, the Association for Episcopal Deacons published competencies for diaconal formation in 2017 and updated them in 2018. The writing group offers this document, A Christian Life of Faith: Signs and Thresholds along The Way, for your use and adaptation.⁷

⁵ In 1956, Benjamin Bloom and four collaborators published a framework for categorizing educational goals using a cognitive progression which presumes lower order thinking is necessary to the development of higher order thinking, familiarly known as Bloom’s Taxonomy. It was revised as Bloom’s Revised Taxonomy (BRT) in 2001. The writing team used BRT and its six levels to differentiate learning outcomes in each of the four phases: Claiming includes the BRT’s remembering and understanding; Emerging concentrates on BRT’s applying; Sustaining focuses on BRT’s analyzing and evaluating; and Cultivating/Catalyzing highlights BRT’s creating.

⁶ TEAC offers more information about the philosophy of ‘Outcomes Based’ education as it applies in the context of South Africa here: <https://www.anglicannews.org/news/2006/01/teac-meeting-ends-with-pledge-to-help-renew-theological-education.aspx>.
